

Privacy Policy

Last updated: 27 June 2024

This privacy policy is applicable to the "Texttract" (referred to as "the App") for mobile devices, which was developed by eGraphene.net (referred to as "Us" or "We"), as a Freemium service.

What information does the App obtain?

The App does not collect any information about the user for our own purposes.

The free version of the app uses third-party advertising services to display ads. These services may collect and use user data, such as device ID, location, and browsing behavior, to deliver targeted advertisements. Please note that we do not collect or use this data ourselves, but we want to inform you about the practices of our advertising partners. We may share your information with third parties in the ways that are described in this privacy statement.

The paid version of the app does not have advertisements and therefore has no tracking by either us or third-party advertising services.

Does the App collect location information of the device?

This App does not gather any information about the location of your mobile device.

Do third parties see and/or have access to information obtained by the App?

The free version of our app uses third-party advertising services to display ads. These services may collect and use user data, such as device ID, location, and browsing behavior, to deliver targeted advertisements. Please note that we do not collect or use this data ourselves, but we want to inform you about the practices of our advertising partners. We may share your information with third parties in the ways that are described in this privacy statement.

Please note that the App utilizes third-party services that have their own Privacy Policy about handling data. Below are the links to the Privacy Policy of the third-party service providers used by the App:

- Google Play Services
- AdMob

We may disclose User Provided information:

- when troubleshooting or debugging
- as required by law, such as to comply with a subpoena, or similar legal process
- when they believe in good faith that disclosure is necessary to protect their rights, protect your safety or the safety of others, investigate fraud, or respond to a government request

What are my opt-out rights?

You can opt-out by uninstalling the App. You may use the standard uninstall processes as may be available as part of your mobile device or via the mobile App marketplace or network.

Changes

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time for any reason. We will notify you of any changes to the Privacy Policy by updating this page with the new Privacy Policy. You are advised to consult this Privacy Policy regularly for any changes, as continued use is deemed approval of all changes.

Your Consent

By using the App, you are giving your consent for third-party advertising services to track your information as described above.
